

St. Patrick's Party.

Mrs. Purcell and daughter, Helen, will entertain with a large party Saturday.

Anniversary.

The ladies of the Euchre Club will observe the eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer, Thursday evening, at their home on Main street.

Tourist

One of the very pleasant events in the history of the Tourist Club was the meeting at the home of Mrs. F. M. McKay, Friday afternoon and evening. The affair was quite a success, as is characteristic of all entertainments provided by this popular hostess. The invitations contained a request for all to bring some kind of a head-dress to be worn during supper. This was the occasion for a great deal of merriment, and brought to light bonnets of grand mothers, great grandmothers, wedding bonnets, lace caps, dust caps, poke bonnets and on down to the present style of fancy crowns and lace head-dresses. It was a motley array, and thoroughly enjoyed. Readings were given by Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Silverthorne, music by Miss Nell McManigal, and Miss Mame Campbell, interspersed with singing and "cake walks". An elegant three course supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Master Clarence and little Miss Jane. The following visitors were present and enjoyed the program. Mesdames Gladman, Morgan, Eisele, Ackers, Garrett, Dollison, Mrs. John Moore, of Cleveland, Mrs. Cora Milford, of Columbus, and the Misses Campbell, McManigal, Pierce, White, Smith and Jones.

Nondescript.

Mrs. Ira Lindley was hostess for this club Thursday afternoon and quite an enjoyable time was had. Mrs. J. T. Sanderson read the first paper, subject, "The Principal Features of Buckeye State, and Why Called the Buckeye State," the paper was fine and evidenced much careful thought and research. Mrs. Eisele read a highly interesting paper on "The Advancement of Logan Ten Years Hence," if all Mrs. Eisele's predictions prove true, Logan and her people will have become famous ten years from now; let's hope she will prove a true prophetess. Mrs. Theo. Tritsch had a very humorous paper on "The Modern Way of Packing a Trunk." To appreciate this paper, one would have to understand the circumstances under which Mrs. Lindley's trunk was packed on her recent visit west. Mrs. Tritsch assisted in the performance, therefore is authority. After the usual program was completed a very pleasant surprise was sprung on Mrs. Lindley and Mrs. McCormick, by presenting each of them with a beautiful set of silver tea spoons. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Morgan and all agreed she would make a first-class "stump speaker." An elegant three course supper was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Work. The following visitors were present: Mrs. Verse Thurness, Mrs. Strawn, Mrs. Cowell, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. Dr. Wright, Mrs. Maud Dannison, Mrs. Dr. Bartlett and Miss Allie Smith.

The Taking Cold Habit

The old cold goes; a new one quickly comes. It's the story of a weak throat, weak lungs, a tendency to consumption. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral breaks up the taking-cold habit. It strengthens, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about it.

"I had a terrible cold, and nothing relieved me. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it promptly broke up my cold, stopped my cough, and made every part of my body feel wonderful work for me."—M. J. F. COVE, Toledo, Ohio.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufactured at SANSAPALLA, ILL. BARK VIOLE.
